Benefits of Membership

- Access to our intellectual and social capital
- Connect with philanthropic and financial advisors
- Connect with individual donors and families
- Participate in conference calls and webinars
- Profile of your network or giving circle on our website
- Profile of selected member of your network/circle/business/family
- Initial phone call: We offer each organizational and individual member an initial phone conversation with a member of our Leadership Team in order to clarify how our knowledge and contacts can be of most benefit to you. It's up to you to decide which members of your giving circle, network, staff, board or family will participate in the call.
